Ben Azzai would say, “Run to do the least of the commandments as you would to do the most important. Run away from transgression, for a commandment pulls along a commandment and a transgression pulls along a transgression. The reward of a commandment is a commandment and the reward of a transgression is a transgression.” (Pirkei Avot 4.2)

What is a Mitzvah?

- A mitzvah is a commandment. There are 613 specific mitzvot in the Torah (plural of mitzvah), traditionally acknowledged to have been given by God or decreed by our Sages.
- Doing Mitzvot connect us to God, bringing God’s presence into our lives.
- Doing Mitzvot is part of our history. Through our actions, we become connected to our people who stood at Sinai to witness God’s eternal covenant with every generation.
- Doing Mitzvot also connects us to our tradition, which at more than 5,000 years old, has contributed to some of our civilization’s greatest values.

Why am I starting to do mitzvot as I become a Bar or Bat Mitzvah?

- While we now call you a Jewish adult, it is actually up to you to become one. It is your time to search, study and take on Jewish responsibilities for yourself.
- While many mitzvot are ‘good deeds’, being helpful and important activities in our society, it is a Jewish responsibility to take them on and do them in a Jewish consciousness that elevates their purpose to something holy, toward making the world complete and whole.
- The Jewish principle of Tikun Olam, of repairing the world, guides us to live out our Jewish values. You can change the world, one deed at a time.

Various ethical and moral bases of mitzvot, to help me think about where I want to begin:

- Tsa’ar Ba’alei Chayim – Being Kind to Animals [Compassion for the pain of living creatures]
  ‘A person should feed his or her animal before eating.’ [Talmud, Berachot 40a]

- Bikur Cholim – Visiting the Sick.
  ‘To attend to the sick is to attend to God.’ [Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel]

- Hachnasat Orchim – Hospitality
  ‘You shall treat the stranger who dwells with you as the native among you, and you shall love that one as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.’ [Leviticus 19:34]
• Tzedakah – Righteous Giving
  ‘Justice, justice shall you pursue.’ [Deuteronomy 16:20]

• Kibud Av va’Em – Honoring one’s parents
  ‘Honor your father and your mother.’ [Exodus 20:12]

• Talmud Torah – Torah Learning
  ‘Study is greater than practice, for it leads to practice.’ [Talmud, Kiddushin 40b]

• Chesed Shel Emet – Honoring the Deceased and Comforting the Mourner
  ‘Weeping may linger at night, but joy comes with a new day.’ [Psalms 30:6]

• Hiddur P’nei Zakein – Giving Honor to the Elderly
  ‘The prosperity of a country is in accordance with the treatment of its aged.’ [Rabbi Nachman of Bratzlav]

• Sh’mirat Shabbat – Observing the Shabbat
  ‘Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.’[Exodus 20:8]

• Sh’mirat haTeva – Protecting our Natural World
  ‘When you wage war against a city, do not destroy its trees.’ [Deuteronomy 20:19]

• Mazon - Feeding the Hungry
  ‘Do not go over your vineyard a second time or pick up the grapes that have fallen. Leave them for the poor and the stranger. I am Adonai your God.’ [Leviticus 19:10]

• Gemilut Chasadim – Deeds of Great Compassion
  ‘Shimon [the son of Rabban Gamliel] says: It is not what one says, but rather what one does, that makes all the difference in the world.’ [Pirkei Avot]

• Zikaron – Remembrance
  ‘Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and the Eternal your God freed you from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm.’ [Deuteronomy 5:15]
B’nai Mitzvah Social Action Projects and Older Youth Volunteer Ideas

We encourage youth to volunteer with our NVHC community, the Reston community and our “partners” including Cornerstones, Forest Edge Elementary School, and Clearview Elementary School.

Projects are more meaningful if they are more than a one-time activity and involve multiple steps including planning, raising funds (if needed) or collecting items, and participating in the activity several times.

Buddy with a younger student to help with homework or reading. Plan a special event to do crafts with children. Contact Cornerstones at volunteer@cornerstonesva.org (or another organization of your choice) to see what they need at their facilities – community centers, day care facilities, and shelters.
